

Formula-Calculator Deluxe 2.0

Frequently asked questions – FAQ

Does the software and the letter descriptions replace the previous formula method?

Yes, the Formula Calculator Deluxe 2.0 is not a topic-based listing, but it is designed for the calculation of your own universal formula. This addresses all subject areas that are relevant to your life, your personal environment, and far beyond.

Among the 27 formula cards for the 3-sense concentration, each individual letter and its meaning is also described in a completely new, detailed, and easily understandable way in all 4 existence areas (Akasha, Mental, Emotional, and Gross Material), enabling the respective effect of EVERY conceivable formula combination (up to the 4th level) to be derived.

What happens if I enter the place of birth instead of the place of residence?

That is technically possible, but the current place of residence is more suitable. Any change is only possible from the NOW, and thus, your formula will achieve maximum effectiveness!

Can the formulas of my universal formula really resolve ALL issues?

YES, if used consistently.

If that happens, what does it make of me? How far does it go? Could it possibly lead to enlightenment?

This formula has the power not only to completely transform your life and resolve all kinds of personal blockages but also brings about an integration of holistic levels of consciousness. It represents formula work of the highest and unprecedented effectiveness. Please note that this formula works in a manner similar to Kabbalistic homeopathy, where the issues may initially come strongly into your awareness before ultimately being completely resolved/transcended.

Are other formulas really no longer necessary?

The search for potentially suitable letter combinations or those that are presumed to be particularly meaningful (but may not be, as they may not act precisely enough on the situation to be changed) is no longer necessary. Due to the nearly inexhaustible supply of formula combinations and their effects, users of previous methods were sometimes tempted to collect dozens of formulas and work with them because they appeared necessary or even essential. However, this resulted in the management of so many formulas being associated with an enormously high time commitment, which often led to the neglect or unfortunate abandonment of formula practice shortly thereafter.

Additionally, it was often observed that all the formulas used triggered certain transformative processes, which were mistakenly perceived as new problems. As a result, the user would change their formula selection or once again search for new, supposedly “more suitable” formulas. This led to a game of finding the “most suitable formula or formula combination,” which was practically never discovered. Even when it seemed like the right choice was made, users rarely stuck with their practice because the changes appeared too intense, and the mind sought “other solutions.”

With your universal formula, this comes to an end. The precisely calculated POWER combination for you becomes your personal companion and guide, leading you safely through all issues and blockages. Due to the SPECIAL and individual calculation, you can expect strong to the most intense changes, unlike anything you’ve experienced with previous (generic) formulas. The step-by-step approach in practice also makes it easier to confront these changes.

How effective is my calculated letter combination?

Since it is unique, and it can be almost ruled out that a second person uses the exact same formula, your formula work creates an increasingly stronger field of consciousness for you. This field assists you in resolving existing conflicts and blockages, awakening the unconscious/unlived aspects within you and bringing them to light.

Gradually, all hidden abilities are also awakened and integrated. This methodology, entirely tailored to your needs, operates like a precisely focused laser beam, initially transforming resistance while simultaneously preparing the new space for a more fulfilling life, with the conscious exploration of previously unconscious potentials. Through regular practice, a phenomenal power field is created, resulting in the highest possible effectiveness of formula work.

Can others also work profitably with my formula ?

NO! Due to the very specific tuning, this is not the case and is by no means advisable. However, through the application and the resulting changes, your entire environment will benefit in a way that was previously considered impossible!

If others work with my formula, does the effect decrease for me personally ?

NO, because each individual has their own energy field, and it is always specifically addressed. Think of it as a very special health remedy designed just for you. When others use it, it will not produce the desired effects, and may even have unintended side effects. For this reason, you should avoid sharing your universal formula with others (key-lock principle).

How should I best handle the effects of my formula?

Any changes that result from working with your tailored universal formula are temporary in nature and should be considered as VERY positive signs. This means that if difficulties, unpleasant phases, or initial resistances (in any way) arise, do not be tempted to stop the practice. Please do not seek specific methods to “get rid of” the changes that occur, as they will certainly be transformed when the practice is continued consistently.

Please note that previous (unconscious) resistances that have blocked you in your life must first be consciously acknowledged and felt. They should not be eliminated with “helper formulas,” as this would be equivalent to repression. It would be counterproductive to try to make feelings, intrusive thought constructs, somatic experiences disappear and thereby avoid confronting them (feeling them).).

Should I do anything else to support this process?

In principle, it is not necessary to do anything else. Focus your attention and perception on things that you wholeheartedly desire and that bring you joy, rather than on problems.

Maintain absolute trust in your awareness that any emerging or existing difficulties will resolve themselves, regardless of how long they have been present. Through the clearing of blockages, you will experience significantly higher manifestation power, which should be used in a positive way for your personal life and for the benefit of all. It's advisable to ensure sufficient grounding (or presence awareness). This can be achieved through various types of body or mindfulness exercises, or through mindful and conscious walks in nature.

How does it work optimally ? Is it better to pronounce the letters or to think them ?

That is up to your intuition. You can even infuse food and beverages with your formula, further enhancing the effect on the gross material level. The same occurs when you inhale the formula and intonate it mentally.

How often and for how long should I work with the universal formula ?

As for the formula duration, please pay attention to your intuition. About 10-30 minutes a day, depending on your level of practice, is typically sufficient. With the formula activator, just a few minutes a day are enough. In general, it's better to do less but to do it consistently.

What reactions can be expected ?

Naturally, you will initially experience the awareness of blockages that may have accompanied you throughout your life. As you become conscious of the underlying causes, these blockages begin to dissolve. The emergence of mental belief patterns, emotional perceptions, or physical reactions is possible, desired, and entirely normal. They disappear at the moment of dissolution. Never work against them, and consider everything that manifests as a positive and temporary change. Please do not overwhelm yourself. You can balance these manifestations by shortening the formula duration and proceeding step by step.

Will my karma be dissolved by this formula ?

Certainly, this happens through the conscious confrontation of the relevant issues and the awareness of what karma actually is.

Should I just repeat my formula, or should I also imagine the 3-sense analogies, or should I feel something specific in addition?

You will be presented with your universal formula along with all the necessary information for the 3-sense concentration (color, feeling = element, sound)! This alone has an effect. The properties of the formula should and will naturally be incorporated into your practices. It is not necessary to master the 3-sense concentration “perfectly.”

For example, you can view the formula in your specific colors and experiment with individual aspects, gradually integrating them. Over time, this will become easier with visual reminders. However, the formula is already highly effective and efficient from the FIRST APPLICATION, even without mastering the 3-sense concentration. More detailed instructions and practice tips can be found in the manual.

Do you need a Formula-Activator when working with the universal formula?

NO, but the necessary formula time can be considerably reduced if desired. Owners of the formula activator can use the 3-SK trainer to check the extent to which the correct tones and elemental vibrations or colors are already being hit automatically.

Can I use the Formula Calculator Deluxe 2.0 on my smartphone or iPhone?

No, the software is currently only developed for Windows desktop systems and Windows tablets! It does not currently run on Apple computers, Android systems or smartphones. EXCEPTION: On non-Windows computers (e.g. Apple IOS, Linux) you can use the software with a Windows emulator (not included in the scope of delivery).

Do I have to pay attention to anything in particular when entering my data?

It does not matter whether you enter umlauts or single letters; “ae” or “ä”, “oe” or “ö” are processed identically. This applies to the name as well as to the current place of residence.

The letters (sounds) “Sch”, “Ch”, “Ö”, “Ü” and “Ä” can also appear in the final output, which means that all letters used in the formula magic are taken into account.

How important is the middle name? After all, both first names are rarely used or pronounced ?!

Please enter all names, including second or third names (as they appear in your passport or ID card). Especially if the second name is not or only rarely used, it still has a large, often very unconscious influence and is decisive for the correct calculation and the optimum effect of your universal formula.

I am married. Do I use the original birth name or the name adopted by my husband?

The current name.

I have a stage name that is mainly used, should I use this for the calculation or add it as a second and third name?

NO. In this case, an important exception applies! Use your original name, i.e. the last current name you had before the name change, even if the stage name is used as your main name or has even been entered in your passport!

Is there anything else I should consider before I start?

Before working with the Formula Calculator Deluxe 2.0, please read and study the instructions and FAQ carefully. It could be that mental constructs put apparent obstacles in the way.

To get started, it would be useful if you just let the formula work on you for the first few days and familiarize yourself with it. Look at the graphics and colors, feel the elements, read the meanings and listen to the sounds. The first contact with the formula has already had an effect. If changes or resistance appear, accept them as necessary processes, go through them with confidence and determination, without “fighting” them in any way.

If processes become too strong, please do not force anything. Do not formulate any more, but rather reduce the formula time or take a break for a while. During such phases, do exercises in the present, mindfulness or anchoring, for example by looking at objects or trying to find something new in them and touching walls and floors, feeling their solidity, their structure, etc. Always take enough time for this.

Do you need the basic formulas at all when using your own formula?

No. However, you can selectively use appropriate formulas to support specific changes and processes. For example: DC (cleaning) or EF (peace and harmony).

Can I have their universal formula calculated for my family or partner?

In principle, yes, but our recommendation is: only give others their own formula based on a feeling as to whether it would make sense in their current phase of life. Do not proceed according to feelings of guilt (e.g. "I owe him this because he is my friend and is asking me for it"), but whether it is really the right time for the other person, whether there is enough stability and self-control.

In families, it generally makes sense for family members to work on themselves together in order to achieve family-systemic progress. However, this should only really be the case if everyone want this together, everyone is consciously willing to do it, no one is forced and everyone supports each other unconditionally. Otherwise, it is best to work on your own, which also has an extremely positive effect on your personal environment (resonance effect).

As an alternative practitioner, therapist, coach, trainer, life coach or spiritual advisor, can I also have the universal formula calculated for my clients and pass it on or sell it on?

The Formula Calculator Deluxe cannot be used commercially without a license. In this case, please contact us.

Is it possible to enter more than 4 letters in 3-SK mode?

No, that wouldn't be necessary either.

Where can I find the serial number?

This is supplied in the software archive as a PDF ("Formelrechner Deluxe 2.0_Serial.pdf") and is entered during the entered during installation. It also provides energy protection.
