

Formula-Calculator Deluxe

The Formula Calculator combines in an excellent way the highest cabbalistic knowledge and the most modern technology.

Designed with a lot of effort and attention to detail, this software contains a maximum development potential for your individual life.

In the basic function you can graphically display any formula from the two to the four level (with all analogy information) and also play the corresponding tones. Furthermore, every single letter of the German alphabet can be called up and displayed in its correct analogy. As a very special plus, a 3-SK trainer has been integrated with which you can also learn all the formula properties.

With the high-quality graphics you get the perfect support for the 3-sense concentration (3-SK) with all formulas, with the color belonging to the respective letters, the element (including feeling correspondence) and the meaning, as well as the correct tone, which was recorded with a piano.

In addition, your very own and unique formula can be determined from over 531,441 possible combinations on the basis of your name, date of birth and current place of residence. This includes the letters most suitable for YOU for the Akasha principle, the mental, astral and coarse material level.

The formula calculator thus offers you 3 separate functions (whereby the corresponding tones can be played in each mode by clicking on the letters):

- Representation of a single letter with all analogy information and description of all 4 manifestation levels (Akasha, Mental, Astral, Material)
- Representation of a formula consisting of up to 4 letters with all analogies

- Calculation of your very personal optimal formula with detailed evaluation, which is adapted to your current situation in order to achieve fast and maximum success. If you have a middle name (consisting of a second or third name), this name will also be included in the evaluation by marking it when you enter it.
